91. 2015 Bodegas Naveran Dama Cava CHEF SELECTION 10 36
 Blend of 15% Parellada and 85% Chardonnay Region: Cava
 I can't recall when I last had a vintage sparkler with this profile for under 40 dollars but I'm very impressed with this. Spain does not have many vintage Cavas and a large combination of Chardonnay, gives the wine body and volume. Parellada, which imparts a zesty, bright character cuts through the buttery roundness of the Chardonnay to make it light enough to drink easily and pair well with seafood and even cured meats.

80% Tempranillo, 20% Garnacha, Graciano, and Mazuelo      Region: EBRO RIVER VALLEY, Rioja
"From a cooler vintage that produced some austere and serious wines--a year with higher acidity and lively fruit. It feels effervescent and it makes you salivate. Made from 50-year-old vines that ferments in ancient oak vats, and ages in barrel for three years. This is so easy to drink that it can be dangerous. This is a classic; the Rioja clarete fino-- both elegant and powerful. Very good value, too." Robert Parker - 92pts
